Description

The collaboration between Ligne Roset and BOSS reveals this special edition of the Togo, where high-quality, durable cachou leather is paired with soft, refined graphite textile, for an elegant and inviting aesthetic. A symbol of French design since 1973, the Togo footstool captivates with its quilting, enveloping silhouette, offering immediate comfort as a seat or footrest. As the result of this collaboration, this special edition combines French craftsmanship and German elegance, creating a footstool where style and comfort meet. The topstitching, inspired by BOSS signature style, adorns the leather section in the same fabric colour, highlighting the lines of the footstool and enhancing its refined character. Combined with graphite fireside chair from this exclusive collection, the footstool completes a chic and harmonious lounge duo. Available to order, it benefits from a premium delivery and installation service, directly to your room.
